

General Studies Yearly Plan

1. Teaching Objectives

- 1.1 Through different learning experiences, students develop creativity;
- 1.2 Students explore, think critically and analyse critically;
- 1.3 Students manage daily life skills and know their roles in the society;
- 1.4 Students are encouraged to care for the current affairs and arise students' news awareness;
- 1.5 In each topic, teachers will bring out civil education and questions for critically thinking.

2. Objective concerned

- 2.1 Further increase scientific and technical interests and explorations.
- 2.2 Enhance students' awareness of news, so that students understand and aware the society and understand citizen's rights and responsibilities, so as to increase their citizen's mentality.

3. Learning and Teaching

- 3.1 Co-operative learning
- 3.2 Encourage activity-based learning
- 3.3 Encourage to use teaching-aids and main-theme learning
- 3.4 Teachers prepare in groups for all topics.
- 3.5 Teachers for same level will have group preparation once for 2 weeks. Each time they will prepare for the next 2 weeks' lessons and review last lesson plan.
- 3.6 Teachers will prepare a lesson plan every time, including: level of students, lesson's topic, lesson, teacher who records, the date, the learning aim, teaching aids, learning activities, evaluations, etc.

4. Learning materials

- Longman General Studies for Gen Z (Textbook and Workbook (English versions))
- Teachers and students are encouraged to discuss and share the recent news in class.
- Discussions can be conducted in "Current affairs discussion lesson".
- Students are required to search the information related to the topic learned.