EDITORIAL

By the time this is written, most of the preparation work for this Annual has been completed. It is not entirely without hardship that we achieved this. However, it is our pleasure to be one of the links in the chain of the working of the Rosarian Year Book.

We sincerely hope that these pages would mean something to all students — past and present — to convey to them the colour and meaning of life in the school. Also we would like to express our gratefulness of boundless profundity here to all those who assisted in the publication of this issue.

Photographer & Proof Reader: Alexander Ho

To His Holiness Pope John Paul II, we heartily dedicate the Rosarian Year Book 1978–1979.

Message From The Supervisor

Volume 13. With this issue, once again, the Annual of Rosaryhill School paints in picture and in word another record of academic achievements. Pressed hard for time, the Editorial Board has nevertheless tried to give us an ANNUAL that will serve as a worthy treasure of varied mementoes of our school life and a comprehensive coverage of the year's happenings with an eye for beauty and balance.

My thanks and congratulations to the Editorial Board and to all who shared the work of preparing this record of our school life.

It is my fondest wish that the attainments and activities recounted in the ANNUAL will help each of you to enrich your personal life, and in later years, as you thumb through these same pages already turned gray with age, you will hear the faint echoes of happy events of yesteryear and recognize the faces of dear friends of long ago.

HISTORICAL BACKDROP: A LONG TRADITION OF LEARNING

*"The most convenient place that I can think of
For such receipt of learning, is Black-Friars"*
(Shakespeare)

IN A CERTAIN SENSE, with the publication of this first SCHOOL YEARBOOK, Rosaryhill School is making her debut and is being formally introduced to the educational circle of Hong Kong. Side by side with some venerable institutions in the Colony, such as Sacred Heart Canossian School (est. 1860) or St. Joseph's College (est. 1870), RHS is a mere toddler. However, the new-comer need not be over bashful in the company of the older establishments, for, young though she is, she can draw on the vast resources and experience accumulated over the centuries within a long tradition of learning; the offshoot is green and tender, yet it sprouts forth from an old and robust trunk that thrusts its roots deep and far.

RHS was established in 1959, and ever since, has been directed by Fathers of the Dominican Order, an international religious family widely known for its academic excellence and unbroken tradition of scholarship. St. Dominic (b. 1170, Caleruega, Spain), the Founder of the Order named after him, was himself an outstanding student and professor at the University of Palencia in his native Castille. His efforts in reviving the zeal of learning were so remarkable that historians rightfully called him "Europe's first minister of public education." Two outstanding members of St. Dominic's family still command places of special honour among the world's foremost thinkers: St. Albert the Great (b. 1193, Lauingen, Germany), patron saint of natural sciences, and St. Thomas Aquinas (b. 1225, Roccaseca, Italy), "the Theologian" par excellence and patron saint of all Catholic schools.

True to the spirit of its Founding Fathers, the Dominican Order has always distinguished itself in the field of theology, philosophy and education at large. From its very beginnings, the Order grew under the shadow of famed institutions of learning. Since the earliest times Dominican friars found their way into such Universities of prestige as Paris, Oxford, Salamanca, Bologna, Cologne and Vienna. It was this glittering array of scholars and this glorious tradition of academic pursuit that led William Shakespeare to pay the rare tribute to the "Black-friars" by which name the Dominicans are still known today in England (because of the black gown worn over the white habit):

*"The most convenient place that I can think of
For such receipt of learning, is Black-Friars"*
(Henry VIII, act.2, sc.2, v.138-9)

Later, in the 15th - 16th centuries, following the wake of the discovery and colonization of the New Continent, Dominican Friars founded schools, fostered learning and spread knowledge in the New Hemisphere wherever their missionary task brought them. At one time Dominican fathers had under their direction about a dozen Universities in South America alone.

These valiant heralds of the Gospel ventured eastward and spearheaded their work of evangelization and civilization still farther afield. In 1587, the first group of Spanish Dominicans arrived in the Far East and landed on the Philippines. Soon after, in 1611, they erected the University of Santo Tomas in Manila, which is the first institution of higher learning in the modern sense in the whole Far East and antedates even the oldest American University of Harvard (est. 1636) by fully a quarter of a century. At present the Dominican fathers and sisters operate dozens of Universities, colleges and schools, and play an active role in other Universities and other cultural institutions throughout Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Philippines, Vietnam and Australia.

It is from this long and glorious academic tradition within the vast Dominican family that RHS draws her inspiration, resources and strength. This centuries-old tradition gives reassurance, imparts confidence, foreshadows success.

ROSARYHILL: FROM MONASTERY TO SCHOOL

IN THE FOREGOING paragraphs we have seen the profile of RHS projected against the historical backdrop of the Dominican tradition of learning. The immediate origin of the school, however, must be traced back to the year 1861, when the Dominican central house in Macau (founded previously in 1757) was transferred to the British Colony of Hong Kong. The first tangible presence of the Dominican missionaries in H.K. took the form of a modest residence near the present Sacred Heart School on Caine Road. A few years later, the residence was sold and a new house on Seymour Road, not far from the previous one, was bought.

But the Dominicans were not satisfied with only a central house, the chief purpose of which was simply to look after the interest of all their missionaries working in the Far East. Their ambition was also to establish a central seminary to train native Oriental missionaries. In view of the centralized position of the British colony, H.K. was chosen as the ideal place for such a long range plan. Their dream became a reality in 1935, when St. Albert's Priory, the Dominican House of Studies for the whole Far East, was built at the foot of Mount Nicolson, a place since then known throughout the Colony by the enchanting name of ROSARYHILL.

The new monastery was a massive building standing conspicuously on the slope of a hill above Happy Valley and was visible from all parts of the harbour and from Kowloon. It was for a long time one of the great Catholic landmarks of the island. It served as the training centre of missionaries coming from near and far: Chinese (both local and from the Mainland as well as from Taiwan), Portuguese (of Hong Kong and Macau), Malaysians, Ceylonese, Japanese, Koreans, Vietnamese, Filipinos, Spaniards and Germans. During its twenty-four years of existence (1935 - 59), the Rosaryhill House of Studies had produced four bishops and sent forth countless priests and brothers to the various parts of the Lord's vineyard. It had been truly a nucleus of irradiation of apostolic activities particularly in China and in other parts of Asia.

Many old time residents of the Colony will still recall the tragic years of the second world war, during which Rosaryhill opened its doors to receive the dependants of prisoners of war under the International Red Cross, civil internees, dependants of the British Red Cross and distressed persons under the care of the Medical Department of the H.K. Government. Even after the war, following the Communist takeover of Mainland China, a great number of bishops (including His Eminence Cardinal Tien of Peking), priests, religious and seminarians sought refuge under the protecting roof of the massive monastery on Rosaryhill.

In more peaceful times, some faithful used to come to pray at the shrine of our Lady of Fatima, erected on the graceful lawn beside the friary. Some others sought the inspiring tranquility of Rosaryhill for annual retreats.

But, alas, peace did not last. The chaos in the East, brought about by the Communist control of China, made it impossible for St. Albert's priory to continue carrying out its task as a centre of religious formation. As a result, Rosaryhill ceased to be used as a House of Studies in 1959, all members of the religious community were dispersed to the Philippines, Vietnam, the U.S.A. and Europe.

The deserted building was then converted into a school, the old monastery thus made way for the new Rosaryhill School.

The new school started with 13 classes from Lower Kindergarten up to Primary 4, with 500 pupils in all. From its modest beginnings the school grew very quickly and steadily. Before long it was felt that a new school building should be constructed to replace the old one in order to accommodate the ever increasing number of pupils and to cope with the rapid expansion of the school. Decision was taken. Down came the old—indeed historic—monastery, to the sorrow and sighs of everyone who had lived in the dear old friary and had learnt to love it. But in its place—to be exact, a few hundred yards away from the old site—stands now the stately RHS, more spacious and incomparably better equipped with the latest facilities. From what was left of the old monastery rises the resplendent modern school.

But the new school is a continuation of the old monastery not merely in the physical identity or geographical vicinity. In fact the present Supervisor, Rev. Fr. Eutimio Gonzalez, O.P., was the very first priest to be ordained at Rosaryhill and the first graduate to be awarded a S.T.L. degree by the newly founded Dominican House of Studies. The present Principal, Rev. Fr. Lionel A. Xavier, O.P., and likewise the former Principal, Rev. Fr. Dominic Lien, O.P., are both products of St. Albert's Priory. RHS is, therefore, in profound meaning, a spiritual prolongation of the old Dominican monastery. We, the Staff and students alike, are reaping the fruits of the three decades of religious training and intellectual formation carried out on this ROSARYHILL.

ARTS HORS D'OEUVRE

The idea of holding an art exhibition was first put forward in an executive committee in December 1977. It was the common thought of all the council members that there was less or no emphasis on exploring the talents of our fellow students in arts among the past activities held by the Student Council.

On the 6th of May, 1978, a meeting of the organising committee was held to examine the progress of the organising work. After analysing the situation, the committee moved to postpone the exhibition due to shortage of time in decorating the exhibition hall.

The 'Chefs' ?

In order to keep up the student's interest despite the postponement, a series of previews of some of the exhibits was held on the 29th and the 30th of May, and on the 13th of June in both sections.

Finally, the Arts Hors D'oeuvre was opened to the students on the 12th to the 14th of February in the school hall as one of the items of the programmes of the 20th anniversary of our school. Here we would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to all who have helped out in the exhibition.

紅樓夢

紅樓夢在七九年一月八日首次演出，比原定的順產日期延遲了半年有多，因為早在七八年的夏季，我們已有公開演出這個劇目的野心，但礙於人力、財力和物力都未能達致成熟的階段，我們只好將這個理想化的抱負擱置下來，直至同年十一月中旬，學生會舊事重提，並且樂意全力支持我們，所以大家又再次展開了連串的籌備工作，希望能趕得及在聖誕前後將這個大型古裝話劇搬上學校的舞台，作為慶祝校慶二十周年紀念的一個項目。

在如火如荼的籌備過程中，我們先後遇到了無數的難題，（事後變為回味無窮的甘果。）首先，「紅」一劇並沒有固定的劇本，我們在閱讀原著之餘，再參考了黎覺奔先生六〇年代為中英劇社編寫的石頭記，依據我們的演出條件和環境限制而加以取捨，編纂而成我們所演出的劇本，為了保持紅樓夢一書內典麗優美的文字特質，我們更參考了紹興劇「紅樓夢」的唱詞，來潤飾我們劇中的台詞，使劇中人物的對話不致流於通俗或過份白話化，無疑，這對於我們的演員來說都有一定的難度，但覺大家克復下來的時候，又感到趣味盎然。

我們選擇好適當的角色之後，就開始了排戲。我們要求，鼓勵每一個演員利用自己對該角色的瞭解和思考去再創造每一個情緒，每一句台詞，但因為當中時間太過倉卒，所以在這方面的成績，還是做不到理想中的突破。

其實除了排戲需要充足的時間外，佈景和服裝都是極需要時間和心機去準備的，我們的同學能夠在兩個星期內發揮了高度的合作精神而完成了這兩項艱巨的任務，實在有若將奇蹟創造成為事實一樣可喜，服裝方面，我們有一位在英國的同學專程返來為我們設計了近三十位演員的造型，包括服裝、髮型和小飾物等，然後又聯同負責縫紉的同學奔波了好幾天才採購齊備了一切材料，這批近三十位演員的戲服，就這樣交由那位負責縫紉的同學接洽了，她連續的工作了三個通宵，大家都不得不替她的健康擔憂，於是馬上又自動自覺的去分担了她這項繁重的工作。

負責佈景的大部份是男同學，他們斬樹、鋸木、建築成舞台上美輪美奐的亭台樓閣，負責美工的同学則日以繼夜地為一幅「大觀園」牆畫而努力，他們曾經在很寒冷的一個晚上留在學校裏工作了整個通宵，第二天早上只稍作休息，便又再度投入工作，大家這種忘我的工作精神，怎不令人深深感動？

雖然，在整體而言，紅樓夢的水準顯然比我們理想中為低，但我們心裏面都有一個共同的願望，就是不以這一年演出的紅樓夢為滿足，在以後的將來，我們還要演出更進步、更成熟、更有創意的紅樓夢，在這段期間，且讓我們先充實自己，為將來的演出而努力吧！

榮獲七九聯校戲劇節

○劇評節錄

黎覺奔 導演的處理很有深度。有舞台節奏感。兩位女演員的表演勢均力敵，很有舞台效果，能引起觀眾共鳴。

麥 秋 本劇之演出，使人驚異兩位女演員對心理狀態，體態的設計及表現，台詞感情，節奏控制，聲音強弱均洽到好處，導演對本劇之處理亦甚見功夫，配音與佈景道具俱佳。服裝與髮型亦甚講究，好戲也！

林大慶 佈景設計相當有美感，兩個女主角相當特出，各有性格，感情變化處理有層次，有氣氛，相當有劇力。台詞動作頗細緻，設計顯見心思，服裝設計很用心，相當成熟的演出。

鍾景輝 上佳的演出。兩位女演員都具有高度的演員潛質。整個戲的發展以此兩角色的內心痛苦、矛盾、衝突為主，兩位演員的演出令我大大叫好，兩人在節奏、交流、及情感的控制上均有絕佳表演，令人簡直不相信是由中學同學所演出的。服裝和演員走位上也看出下過一番功夫。

Oxford Geography Books for School

Fullard: MODERN SCHOOL ATLAS FOR HONG KONG

The Modern School Atlas for Hong Kong is being jointly published by Oxford University Press and George Philip. It is a revision of Philip's Modern School Atlas for Hong Kong and contains sixteen new or revised maps. The maps especially drawn or revised for this edition are: East Asia-Australasia region. Political, Physical, Climate Nov-March, Climate May-Oct, Population. Hong Kong Geology (1:250,000), Land Use (1:175,000) Topographical (1:175,000), Kowloon and Victoria (1:20,000), China Topographical (1:15,000,000).

Price: HK$22.00

French & Squire: HUMAN AND ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY r/e

Human and Economic Geography has been completely revised to give a comprehensive coverage of the Certificate syllabus. The authors have illustrated the topics in the syllabus with many examples from the East Asia and Australasia regions and also, where relevant, with examples from all over the world. Many of the topics have a general introduction which helps to put the regional examples into perspective. The book is very well illustrated with simple, two-colour maps, many photographs, diagrams and statistical information along with a selection of examination questions.

Squire: MAP READING & INTERPRETATION FOR HONG KONG r/e

Map Reading and Interpretation for Hong Kong has been revised to cover the exact requirements of the Hong Kong Certificate of Education Geography Syllabus. There is new chapter on weather studies and the 1:20,000 scale maps have been included. Metric figures have been used and at the end of each topic there are exercises and multiple choice questions. In addition there are diagrams and question patterns along with worked examples to supplement the text.

Speak & Reed: NEW OXFORD PROGRESSIVE GEOGRAPHY FOR HONG KONG r/e

This series, Books 1–3, has been completely revised and updates all material relevant to modern Hong Kong. The Syllabus recommended by the Hong Kong Education Department is followed closely. Physical and mathematical concepts are introduced where relevant and where their immediate practical use and application can be understood by the student.

The text is written in simple English according to a carefully devised language grading scheme to ensure that all students will be able to read on their own.

The exercises referred to in the textbook are all in the accompanying workbook which is essential for pupils to use. The exercises emphasize practical work and like the textbook have been carefully graded for difficulty of English and content.

Teachers' edition to the workbook is also available on request.

萬能達 EG301 乾式影印機 世界首創 · 不同凡响

萬能達 EG 301 型影印機，全世界首創採用纖維鏡頭，設計精密，效果完善無瑕。纖維鏡頭由 579 條玻璃纖維組合而成，將影像結集，通過光電導體後，直接複影在紙上，故副本份外清晰玲瓏，不像其他之影印機內的鏡頭組織，令其影像需要經過多重反射而導致失真。

萬能達 EG 301 型影印機，在影印副本完畢後，能自動熄機，特別慳電，實為現代寫字樓最理想之影印機。
