EDITORIAL

The 1984-1985 School Annual is fresh off the press! Needless to say, Rosaryhill School is such a big happy family, with its fathers, teachers, students and staff, that the Annual serves as a record for the school's numerous functions, activities and celebrations for the past year. And, what a year! Cherished memories from one section link up with another section, from one department to another department, from one member to another member of the school. And, there are more! The Annual faithfully reflects the steady growth of our educational process because we are still learning in our 26th year since the establishment of our school. We learn, by looking back, what we have done and we understand what we have experienced. The Annual then is no longer simply a record but a personal diary that we all share as a means of encouragement for future endeavours. We are, therefore, ready to accept new challenges and we strive to improve in all that we do in the years ahead.

The 1984-1985 School Annual has an innovative look. It has colour pages, wonderful colours! It has colours to brighten any dull day, colours to put smiles on all the sad children's faces, colours that seem to stem from God's own rainbow in the sky. It is the first of its kind in the issue of the Annual's predecessors. It boasts of an earlier date of publication in order to satisfy the growing demands of our students. It features a new layout in keeping with the family theme. All these breakthroughs is a direct result of the continuous enthusiastic support of our patrons, parents, students and school authorities without which this Annual would be impossible.

Union with love is indeed strength, the very characteristics of a happy family. We hope that the Annual can capture this feeling of unity and love, drawing more support from students and teachers with their contribution of articles so that the School Annual will remain a lasting impression for those who look through its pages in the near and distant future.

Message From The Supervisor

As ROSARYHILL moves through its 26th year, we note the changes in our environment. Changes that will breed new challenges; changes that will demand new roles and the fashioning of new dreams and ideals. Hong Kong and its people look to the future with hope based on faith in their capacity to turn challenges into opportunities and dreams into realities.

ROSARYHILL intends to face up to the work ahead. Our school prides itself in its most important resources — our faculty and staff whose competence, dedication, efficiency, and moral strength provide vitality to the learning process.

Their noble endeavours will always be supported by our continuous effort to upgrade school facilities, to acquire necessary updated equipment, and generally, to create an environment conducive to teaching and learning.

Education is a vital factor in the continuous task of development. It provides nourishment of the mind and spirit; and the application of your acquired knowledge will bridge the gap between any goal and its realization.

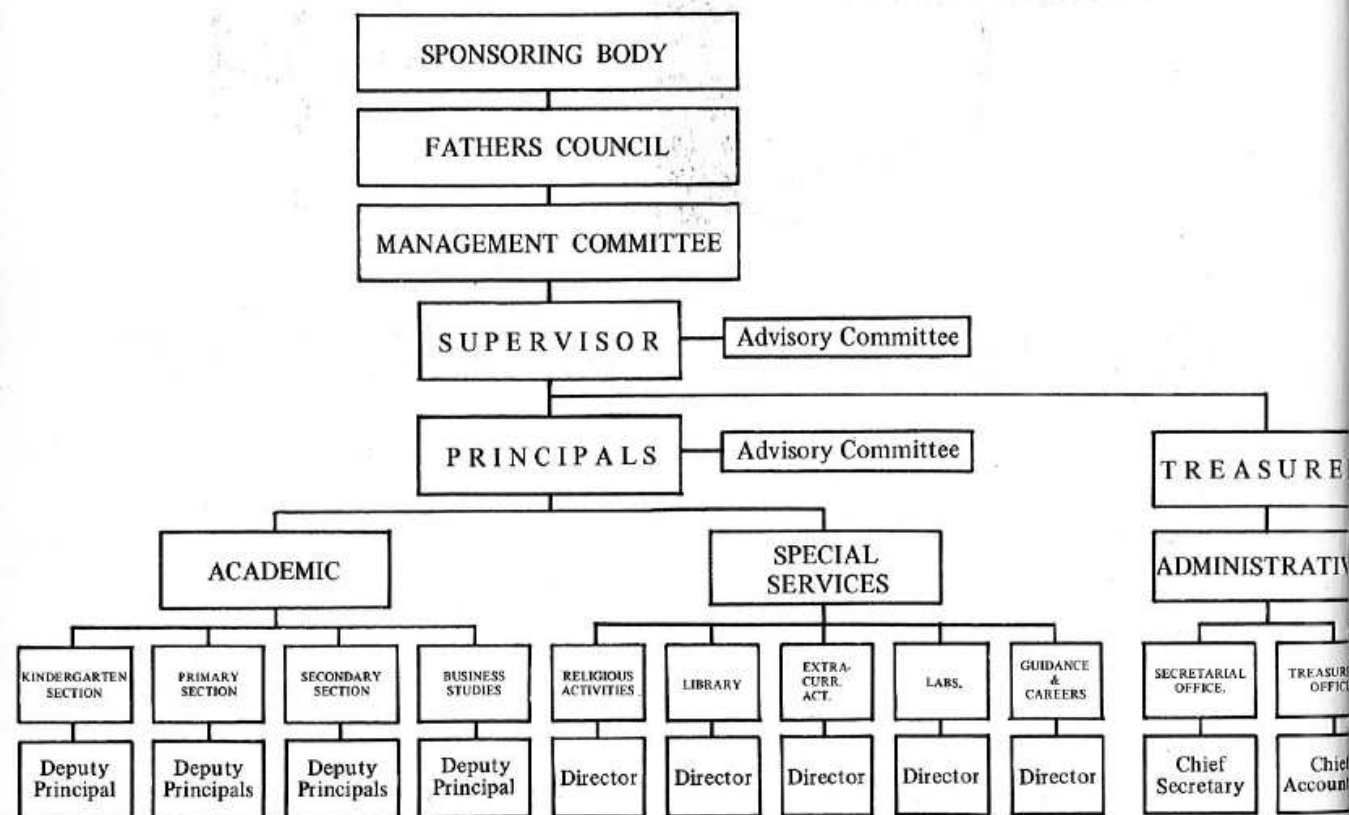

I urge you then to be "apostles of change" and direct your knowledge and efforts in constructive activities in the service of God and your fellowmen.

My best wishes to you all!

可敬的崔雪儀女士

——前任小學部副校長

相信一提起 Miss Tsui —— 小學部崔雪儀副校長，玫瑰崗學校的員生都一定不會感到陌生。

遠在一九六一年學校創辦初期，崔女士即投身玫瑰崗這育幼的大家庭，擔任全校總秘書之職。身為總秘書的她，一切大小事務，均親力親為，從不假手於人。隨着學校之擴展，學生人數之增多，校務工作日趨繁重，職員亦因而相繼增加，崔女士除將本身部門之工作處理得井井有條之外，並能與各部門之職員相處融洽愉快。

一九七四年，她因私人理由，曾離開學校一段時間。對玫瑰崗，她始終不能忘懷，於一九七八年，她再重返本校，這次她是擔任小學部副校長之職位。由總秘書而轉任小學部副主管，無論在工作性質或程序上，都有很大的分別。面對這項挑戰，崔女士除了發揮她的秘書專長外，並憑着無比的信心及毅力，在短短的時間內，掌握了學校行政工作的竅門，了解其所擔當工作的一切程序，使校務能順利地推行，她的成功，是需要付出很多心血和代價，並不是偶然的。試想想一個人每天從早上七時踏出家門，一直工作到下午五時半左右，才開始回家，經年累月維持這冗長的工作時間，如非有無比的鬥志，對教育之熱誠，實無法支持下去，她如此刻苦耐勞，努力工作，怎不

令人敬佩呢！同時她對屬員的和藹可親，對學生的慈愛，也非常令人欣賞。

崔副校長在本校服務長達十九年，其間貢獻良多，今次之移民，實為本校之損失。但天下無不散之筵席，唯有在這裏，衷心的向她寄予無限的敬意和祝福。

COMPUTER—A TOOL TO EXTEND HUMAN THINKING

Technological advances seen in the last decade or so have seen and helped the esoteric rise from obscurity to prominence of computer in our daily lives. Its repertoire varies from offices to homes, from factories to recreation centres. It is natural, therefore, that its profound prodigy and predominance should be adopted in teaching.

In most contemporary educational situations where students come into contact with computers, the computer is used to put students through their paces, to provide exercises of an appropriate level of difficulty, to provide feedback, and to dispense information. Thus, the computer effectively programs the student. In prospective, we must appreciate the fact that today's education has the unfortunate trend of emphasizing mastery of the known, and it does very little to prepare the individual to cope effectively with the unknown. In reality we should have a parallel interests in these two streams — students can deepen their understanding through lessons and practicals while they can simultaneously structure explorations to help them to develop thinking and problem solving skills, skills that enable them not only to understand what is known, but help them to learn how to cope with the unknown which is an essential ability for coping with today's rapid changing world.

Most people, students and teachers alike, are fascinated by the prodigy of good interactive computer games, simulations, and tutorials. Playing around, in a meaningful way of course, with a personal computer can be both relaxing and enjoyable, as well as temporary frustrating and aggravating. With such indulgence and positive attitude towards computer, there lies the true power of computer to effectively revolutionize learning and teaching in schools. For many students, to explore new materials via the magic of a computer could be both challenging and alluring, and this technique has been proved to have an affirmative effect on the deepening of their knowledge in, application and understanding of science, mathematics, arts and any other subject that one might care to mention.

Under the auspice of the Education Department, the first phrase of the Computer Studies course at School Certificate level was introduced three years ago, and our School was lucky enough to be elected to join the second phase of the said pilot scheme last year. Such move has sparked the inevitable trend and I can certainly envisage computer implementation and programming in both academic and commercial environment will escalate to become an integral part in the foreseeable future. To substantiate such audacious claims, it is hoped that cognitive development of the course will be able to extend human productive thinking skill and to explore new mental territory.

One of the many reasons why personal computer can catalyze a revolution in schools is that they are relatively cheap and should get even cheaper. With the conspicuous growth in interests and demands in this innovation, it is imminent that this technique would flourish and be used as frequent and mandatory as electronic calculators in today's mathematics lessons.

我在這裏成長

中六甲楊雨恩

灰色的大象羣，在港島的主要街道上穿插出沒，差不多是無處不達。路人看見這龐大的陣容，不自覺地投下羨慕的眼光，可是對我來說，這不算是甚麼，反有一份親切的感覺，因為這是我校的校車車隊。

學校的校車部究竟有多少年的歷史？我不大清楚，恐怕是有十七、八年以上的日子了。還記得第一天上課的情景——一個四歲的小孩子踏上這隻灰色大象，內心的那份雀躍，猶如獲得一份夢寐難忘的玩具。媽媽送我進來這兒念書，大抵是覺得這兒環境好，交通方便。想不到就在這裏生活了十多年。

幼稚園的生活是無憂無慮的。從家庭到學校，從一寫到十，從A唸到Z，一切都給予我新鮮感和充實感。雖然這份感覺隨時日已日漸模糊，但每當今日，在一樓的長廊見到劉主任時，她那慈愛的微笑、親切的語調，使我不自覺地停下來向她說聲好。

幼稚園的時光抓也抓不住，小學我是怎樣渡過的——沉重的功課壓力——每星期的中英文默書、每月的測驗……滋味是怎樣的，怎麼想來想去也是一片空白，猜想是每天從學校的這張桌子轉往家裡的桌子去。

中學生活對我來說是另一個新的世界。第一年的中學生活予我一種異樣的感受——地位的轉移，由六年級的老大哥，突然被人稱為「E.1仔」，內心是有點兒難過，但也不是一事無成的，至少在高年級老大哥的指導下，我學會了打羽毛球。

我唸中二的時候，學校成立了社的組織，三百多人同屬的一個社佔去了我生活的一大部份，社裡的每一項活動，我都踴躍參加，由啦啦隊至籃球比賽，那樣沒有我的份兒？我的中學生活是越來越多姿多采。

中三的那一年，社的結構日見完善，而我為我社出力的機會更多——能代表我社出賽，實在是一種光榮。

我在中四的時候，比中三時更見活躍，我再不只是參與者，多年的訓練使我有機會成爲一個籌劃者，雖然我的心智還未成熟，偶爾會因同學間的問題而鬧脾氣，幸而在各位老師指導下漸漸明白過來。老師們身上的各種優點對我產生影響——堅持原則、公正不阿、積極參與、永不言敗……

中五是沉默和寂寞的。看見校內各種活動進行得如火如荼，我不敢參與，只有在旁邊觀看的份兒——因為會考的脚步近了。

八月，會考放榜，我重回母校的懷抱。學期初，上屆學生會張貼了競選廣告，喚起了我那份冷卻了的熱情，也吸引了我去參加競選。在同學們的信賴和支持下，我當選爲本屆學生會主席，也得到了了一個服務同學的機會。

這一年可以說是我在玫瑰崗的十五年裏最充實的一年，也是我最值得回憶的一年——

剛從莫家駒身上接下這副担子，心裡有點憂慮，我和閣員們能肩負起這個使命嗎？特別是八十年代的香港中學學生會，在這一政治體制轉變中的年代，一個推行民主教育的社會，我們能完成這個責任嗎？

初時，同學混淆了社際和學生會舉辦的活動，因爲有些活動，其性質與形式彼此十分相似，唯一不同的，學生會以班爲單位，目的是通過活動使班裏的同學加深了解，緊密合作。在這目標下，我們辦了中五、六、七年級聖誕聯歡會，演藝八五，班際辯論比賽，會考講座等，除此之外，也擔任了溝通學生與學校橋樑的角色，例如師生同樂日和迎新日等，爲同學服務方面，我們辦了功課輔導組、訂閱報章、報失和租棋的服務中心。在六月所發的問卷中，同學們所希望我們改善的地方，已在著手進行和籌備，希望能貫徹參選時爲同學謀福利之口號。

踏上九月，我們的任期已入尾聲，回顧這一年來，我們幹事會除繼承上屆優良傳統外，我們更邁開一大步，今天在校園四週我們所見到的清水泉和從明年開始每個同學都能擁有一份免費的崗暉，這正是我們努力換來的成果。

這十五年來在玫瑰崗的生活，給予我成長的機會。在這裏只是一個起點，我寄望在不久的將來中有更大的發展。

MORAL EDUCATION: "Mind-Control" or Personality Development?

Man and his societal groups have ultimate values or a perspective giving them a more or less orderly and understandable picture of the world. Clyde Kluckhohn remarks that no matter how primitive and crude it may be, there is a "philosophy behind the way of life of every individual and of every relatively homogenous group at any given point in their histories." When a person gives up one such perspective or ordered picture of the world for another, I refer to this process as conversion.

Frequently, such conversions are between popular and widely held perspectives — from Communism to Catholicism, or from the world picture of an underdeveloped or primitive culture to that of a technically more advanced society. The continual emergence of uncontrolled pornography and tiny cults in western industrial nations influencing Hong Kong makes it clear, however, that sometimes people relinquish a more widely held perspective for an unknown, obscure and often, socially devalued one. This process is extremely dangerous and remains problematic.

The need for moral education is, therefore, unquestionable. Moral education is not "mind-control", as certain deviant groups would have people believe, but an intricate and inseparable part of the development of personality. Personality is thus the integration of all of a person's traits, abilities, motives, temperament, attitudes, opinions, beliefs, emotions, character and morals.

I next wonder how morality develops, at what age students acquire certain ideas about "right" and "wrong". Kohlberg (1963) has investigated such development, describing three levels of moral thought:

- I. Preconventional level.
- II. Conventional level.
- III. Postconventional, autonomous, or principled level.

with two stages of development characteristic of each level:

1. The punishment-obedience orientation.
2. The instrumental-relativist orientation.
3. The interpersonal-concordance orientation.
4. Authority and social order-maintaining orientation.

5. The social-contract legalistic orientation.
6. The universal ethical principle orientation.

These stages have been identified from the verbal responses of children and adults to moral dilemmas presented to them. The question for schools is whether or not the rate of development through these different stages can be increased through special school experiences. The answer appears to be that training programmes make little long-term difference (Turiel, 1966; Blatt, 1969).

Moral development is a process of growth based upon interaction with the environment. Educators are working on the problems of improving moral development in a technologically mature and rapidly changing society like Hong Kong. Values-orientated curricula and teaching strategies, though very difficult to develop, will become more common and, I hope, help students to grow from one stage to the next. For now, teachers can remember that when moral concerns are at issue, a student will profit from exposure to beliefs at one stage above his own. Presenting moral beliefs at high levels of abstraction and complexity, which require relativistic thinking, will probably be ineffective with young children. Adolescents, on the contrary, are typically ready for exploring moral questions because such questions occupy a good deal of adolescent attention (Mitchell, 1975).

Moral education is then no longer thought of as a "mind-control" method but as an essential part of the development of personality. In order for an individual to function well and survive in a materialistic society like Hong Kong, he must cultivate a personality that is not only beneficial to his soul but to the social environment of which he is an important member.

HISTORICAL BACKDROP: A LONG TRADITION OF LEARNING

*"The most convenient place that I can think of
For such receipt of learning, is Black-Friars"*
(Shakespeare)

IN A CERTAIN SENSE, with the publication of this first SCHOOL YEARBOOK, Rosaryhill School is making her debut and is being formally introduced to the educational circle of Hong Kong. Side by side with some venerable institutions in the Colony, such as Sacred Heart Canossian School (est. 1860) or St. Joseph's College (est. 1870), RHS is a mere toddler. However, the newcomer need not be over bashful in the company of the older establishments, for, young though she is, she can draw on the vast resources and experience accumulated over the centuries within a long tradition of learning; the offshoot is green and tender, yet it sprouts forth from an old and robust trunk that thrusts its roots deep and far.

RHS was established in 1959, and ever since, has been directed by Fathers of the Dominican Order, an international religious family widely known for its academic excellence and unbroken tradition of scholarship. St. Dominic (b. 1170, Caleruega, Spain), the Founder of the Order named after him, was himself an outstanding student and professor at the University of Palencia in his native Castille. His efforts in reviving the zeal of learning were so remarkable that historians rightfully called him "Europe's first minister of public education." Two outstanding members of St. Dominic's family still command places of special honour among the world's foremost thinkers: St. Albert the Great (b. 1193, Lauingen, Germany), patron saint of natural sciences, and St. Thomas Aquinas (b. 1225, Roccaseca, Italy), "the Theologian" par excellence and patron saint of all Catholic schools.

True to the spirit of its Founding Fathers, the Dominican Order has always distinguished itself in the field of theology, philosophy and education at large. From its very beginnings, the Order grew under the shadow of famed institutions of learning. Since the earliest times Dominican friars found their way into such Universities of prestige as Paris, Oxford, Salamanca, Bologna, Cologne and Vienna. It was this glittering array of scholars and this glorious tradition of academic pursuit that led William Shakespeare to pay the rare tribute to the "Black-friars" by which name the Dominicans are still known today in England (because of the black gown worn over the white habit):

*"The most convenient place that I can think of
For such receipt of learning, is Black-Friars"*
(Henry VIII, act.2, sc.2, v.138-9)

Later, in the 15th - 16th centuries, following the wake of the discovery and colonization of the New Continent, Dominican Friars founded schools, fostered learning and spread knowledge in the New Hemisphere wherever their missionary task brought them. At one time Dominican fathers had under their direction about a dozen Universities in South America alone.

These valiant heralds of the Gospel ventured eastward and spearheaded their work of evangelization and civilization still farther afield. In 1587, the first group of Spanish Dominicans arrived in the Far East and landed on the Philippines. Soon after, in 1611, they erected the University of Santo Tomas in Manila, which is the first institution of higher learning in the modern sense in the whole Far East and antedates even the oldest American University of Harvard (est. 1636) by fully a quarter of a century. At present the Dominican fathers and sisters operate dozens of Universities, colleges and schools, and play an active role in other Universities and other cultural institutions throughout Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Philippines, Vietnam and Australia.

It is from this long and glorious academic tradition within the vast Dominican family that RHS draws her inspiration, resources and strength. This centuries-old tradition gives reassurance, imparts confidence, foreshadows success.

ROSARYHILL: FROM MONASTERY TO SCHOOL

In the origins paragraphs we have seen the profile of RHS projected against the historical backdrop of the Dominican tradition of learning. The immediate origin of the school, however, must be traced back to the year 1861, when the Dominican central house in Macau (founded previously in 1757) was transferred to the British Colony of Hong Kong. The first tangible presence of the Dominican missionaries in H.K. took the form of a modest residence near the present Sacred Heart School on Caine Road. A few years later, the residence was sold and a new house on Seymour Road, not far from the previous one, was bought.

But the Dominicans were not satisfied with only a central house, the chief purpose of which was simply to look after the interest of all their missionaries working in the Far East. Their ambition was also to establish a central seminary to train native Oriental missionaries. In view of the centralized position of the British colony, H.K. was chosen as the ideal place for such a long range plan. Their dream became a reality in 1935, when St. Albert's Priory, the Dominican House of Studies for the whole Far East, was built at the foot of Mount Nicolson, a place since then known throughout the Colony by the enchanting name of ROSARYHILL.

The new monastery was a massive building standing conspicuously on the slope of a hill above Happy Valley and was visible from all parts of the harbour and from Kowloon. It was for a long time one of the great Catholic landmarks of the island. It served as the training centre of missionaries coming from near and far: Chinese (both local and from the Mainland as well as from Taiwan), Portuguese (of Hong Kong and Macau), Malaysians, Ceylonese, Japanese, Koreans, Vietnamese, Filipinos, Spaniards and Germans. During its twenty-four years of existence (1935 - 59), the Rosaryhill House of Studies had produced four bishops and sent forth countless priests and brothers to the various parts of the Lord's vineyard. It had been truly a nucleus of irradiation of apostolic activities particularly in China and in other parts of Asia.

Many old time residents of the Colony will still recall the tragic years of the second world war, during which Rosaryhill opened its doors to receive the dependants of prisoners of war under the International Red Cross, civil internees, dependants of the British Red Cross and distressed persons under the care of the Medical Department of the H.K. Government. Even after the war, following the Communist takeover of Mainland China, a great number of bishops (including His Eminence Cardinal Tien of Peking), priests, religious and seminarians sought refuge under the protecting roof of the massive monastery on Rosaryhill.

In more peaceful times, some faithful used to come to pray at the shrine of our Lady of Fatima, erected on the graceful lawn beside the friary. Some others sought the inspiring tranquility of Rosaryhill for annual retreats.

But, alas, peace did not last. The chaos in the East, brought about by the Communist control of China, made it impossible for St. Albert's priory to continue carrying out its task as a centre of religious formation. As a result, Rosaryhill ceased to be used as a House of Studies in 1959, all members of the religious community were dispersed to the Philippines, Vietnam, the U.S.A. and Europe.

The deserted building was then converted into a school, the old monastery thus made way for the new Rosaryhill School.

The new school started with 13 classes from Lower Kindergarten up to Primary 4, with 500 pupils in all. From its modest beginnings the school grew very quickly and steadily. Before long it was felt that a new school building should be constructed to replace the old one in order to accommodate the ever increasing number of pupils and to cope with the rapid expansion of the school. Decision was taken. Down came the old—indeed historic—monastery, to the sorrow and sighs of everyone who had lived in the dear old friary and had learnt to love it. But in its place—to be exact, a few hundred yards away from the old site—stands now the stately RHS, more spacious and incomparably better equipped with the latest facilities. From what was left of the old monastery rises the resplendent modern school.

英國皇家鑄幣廠精鑄

財神金牌

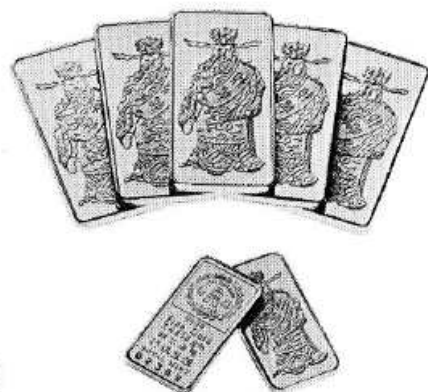

隆情厚意 寓意吉祥

財神在中國人心目中，是代表富貴榮華之形象，廣受大眾所歡迎。恒生銀行發行之財神金牌，乃依據傳統之財神形象，由英國皇家鑄幣廠特為本行精工鑄造，採用千足純金製成，每個都刻有編號，列明9999成色及重量，並附證明書。

金牌重量分二錢(7.485克)及五錢(18.714克)兩種，另備十四K金框，以供選購。金牌售價則根據國際金價之變動而釐訂，每日在各行所公佈。

財神金牌由名廠精鑄，價值珍貴，寓意吉祥，適合自奉珍藏，投資保值，亦是饋贈親朋之上選精品。

有關金牌更詳細之資料，歡迎惠臨本行港九及新界各行所查詢，或電(5)212193, (3)314411。

THE LORD'S PRAYER

OUR FATHER who art in heaven
hallowed be Thy name
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us and lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil
Amen

SCHOOL SONG

Fair Lady of the Rosary to your School I come the Seedbed of eternity and maker of my crown
the Seedbed of eternity and maker of my crown
Forever Rosaryhill School my Alma Mater true radiates the Light of Truth to all with warmth of Love most pure my tender mind, my budding heart need guidance to the goal
the Truth and Love you then impart to my immortal soul
the Truth and Love you then impart to my immortal soul
